CU Recovery Collection Academy Announces Scholarship Winners

Wyoming, MN May 15, 2018.

CU Recovery and The Loan Service Center, the #1 collection resources for credit unions, is committed to quality collection education and giving back to the credit union community. Today CU Recovery announced the award of $4,000.00 in scholarships to its Fall 2018 Collection Academy. 3 scholarships were awarded to credit unions based on their submission about how the goals of their collection department would be achieved through their professional development. Recipients will receive Collection Academy tuition, lodging at the host hotel, and will be recognized during the 2.5 day conference.

Wendy Elieff, Senior Vice President Sales and Service stated: "The Academy centers around individual sessions on timely topics, in a peer-driven atmosphere that can be stepping stones to help collection departments serve their members resolve outstanding debt. I was pleased to see the depth of commitment to credit union members and professional development demonstrated in the 2018 submissions."

Scholarship winners:

Christy Garza, Pima Federal Credit Union – Tucson, AZ
Tori Napier, Tulsa Federal Credit Union – Tulsa, OK
Loraine Smith, Code Credit Union – Dayton, OH

The recipients' reaction to winning the scholarship was excitement for the opportunity to be a part of the 2018 Collection Academy. Christy Garza from Pima Federal Credit Union said "This is so epic! I am super stoked! This means the world to me and I am beyond grateful for this opportunity. Many thanks CU Recovery!"
